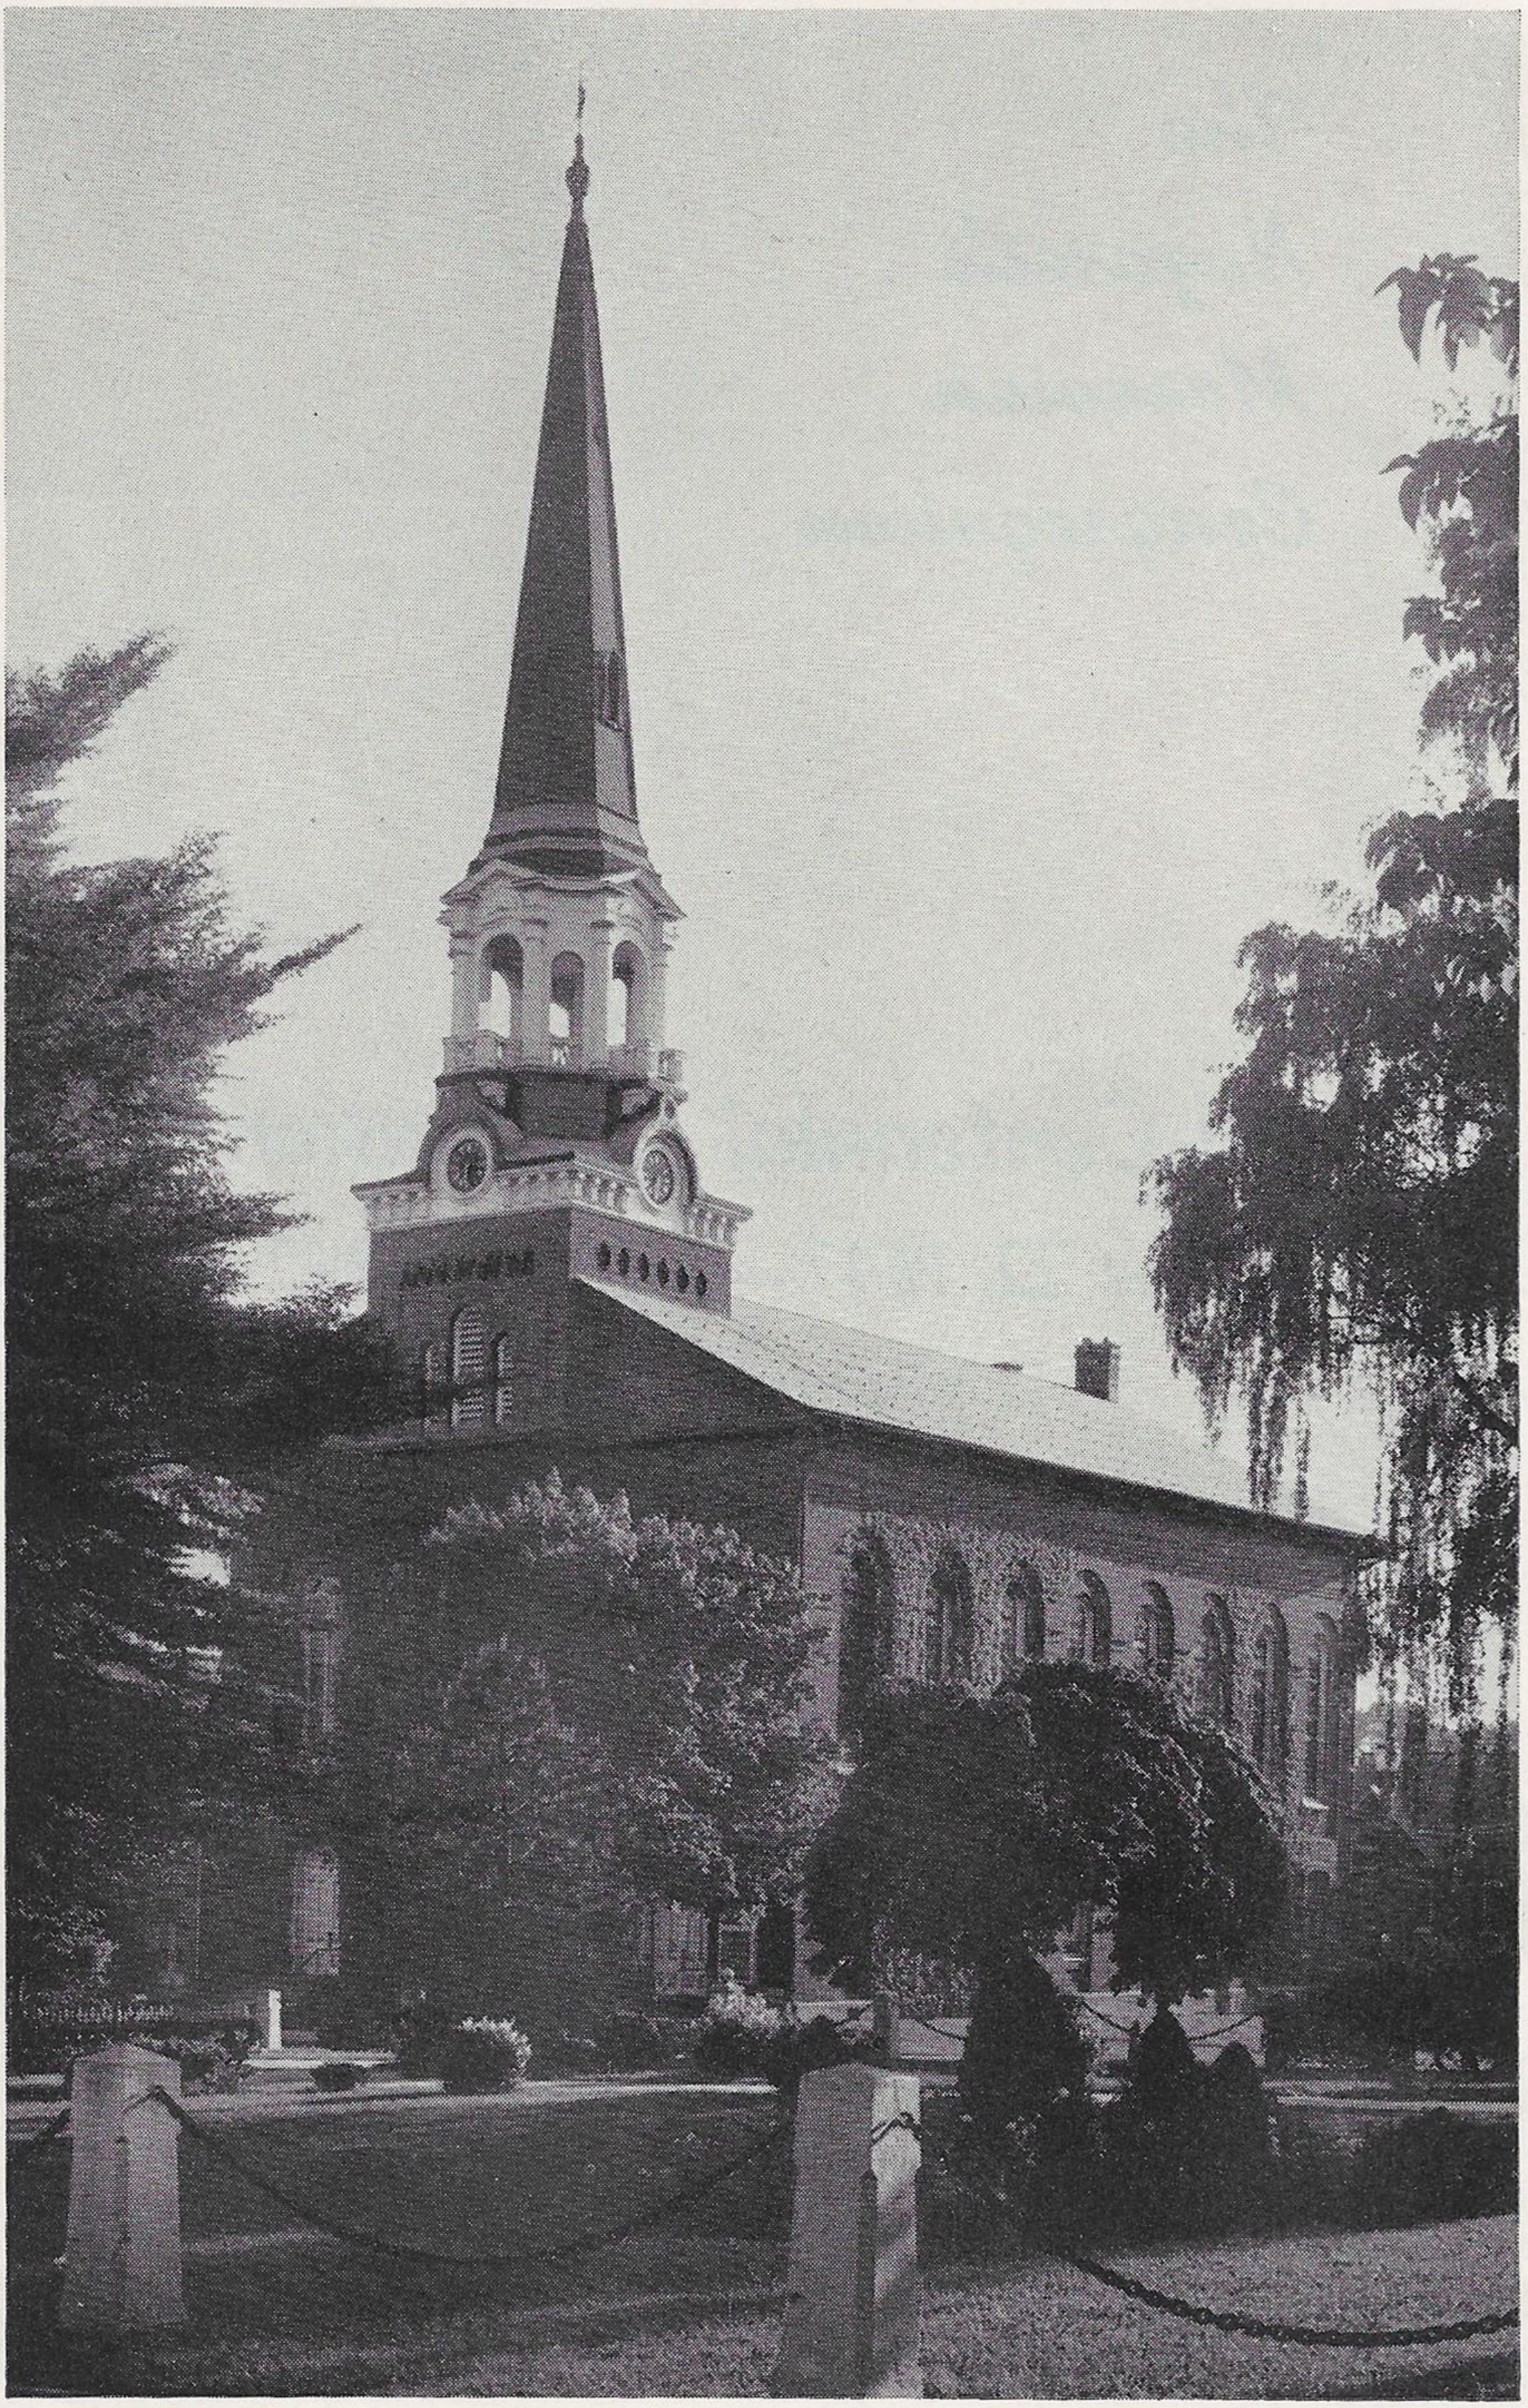
The Nazareth Moravian Congregation

Bi-Centennial Celebration

June 22, 1947 — June 29, 1947

Nazareth, Pa.

"In essentials unity; in non-essentials liberty;
in all things charity."



INTRODUCTORY

HEARTY GREETINGS to one and all on this festive occasion of special celebration. May the Lord bless our special effort with renewed zeal and devotion.

It has been our aim through this publication—1. to recall again some of our glorious history—2. to honor the past and its devoted Christian personalities and servants—3. to mark those who have gone forth from our congregation into full time Christian service—4. to present a picture of our present church so that names and scenes of 1947 may be preserved for future readers who will be as interested in us as we are in those of the past.

Quite obviously, the size of this publication does not permit the full and complete history which we would like to present. Suffice it to say, that we hope this presentation meets the present need, and has in it much to win general approval.

We are indebted to Dr. W. N. Schwarze for exhaustive research in connection with the list of men and women who have gone into Christian service from our congregation. With painstaking care the lists of almost 300 names have been checked with our local church rolls. We trust that there are no errors, but that is hoping for too much. Our sincere apologies if errors are discovered.

We are indebted to all who assisted us in preparing this publication; Mrs. Grace Breinig Bramer for art work, and Harold W. Starner, John McGonigle, J. Allen Starner, Jr., Ottomar Schramm, Maude Menhennitt, Catharine Frey, and Catherine Beitel, for special service.

Respectfully submitted by your Bi-Centennial Committee:

C. Frederick Martin, Chairman
The Rev. Robert I. Giering, Pastor
Andrew G. Kern
Jesse D. Kreidler
Mrs. Frank R. Huth
Mrs. Robert F. Ziegler
Mrs. Walter L. Peters
Mrs. George A. Sundberg
Mrs. Nathan B. Brobst

"Our Lamb has conquered: Let us follow Him."

A BIT OF HISTORY

THOUGH NAZARETH had its beginning when Moravians came up from Georgia in 1740 and under the leadership of the famous Moravian, Peter Boehler, laboriously pushed their way up through the wilderness from Philadelphia to begin a new project on the five thousand acre tract purchased by the great evangelist, George Whitefield, and named "Nazareth" by him.....Though this tract and a five hundred acre tract at the junction of the Monocacy and the Lehigh where Bethlehem is now located came into the hands of the Moravians in 1741.....Though thirty-two young couples came to Nazareth on January 2, 1744 and occupied the newly erected stone building called the Whitefield House and established the first church home of "The Barony".....Though the first Lord's Supper was celebrated at Nazareth on April 11, 1745 with the new resident pastor, Reinhold Ronner, presiding.....Though the work at Nazareth and Bethlehem was closely inter-related as one unit during those early years.....It was not until June 25, 1747 that a distinct and separate congregation was organized at Nazareth. The Nazareth celebration this year is the Bi-Centennial of that organization.

The early record of Nazareth and Bethlehem from 1742 to 1762 is a most inspiring account. During that period the settlements on both tracts, motivated by a Christian spirit and missionary zeal, bore between them the financial burden of the widely spread Moravian work in America. The members of these settlements were divided into two groups, one to go abroad as evangelists, teachers and missionaries, the other to work in the settlements earning the means for their own support and that of those whom they sent out. Six farms or plantations on the Nazareth tract became most literally the granary of the Economy. At one time this mutual effort supported about fifty itinerant preachers, teachers and missionaries; real home missionaries laboring from Massachusetts to Georgia.

On this Bi-Centennial occasion, we think of the Log House at Nazareth built in 1740, now called "The Gray Cottage," and still occupied. This log house, under the shadow of Whitefield House, was the first school house of The Barony, and here Nazareth Hall had its beginning. The pastor of the congregation, in most instances, likewise, served as principal of Nazareth Hall School for Boys which was destined to train many leaders of the Moravian Church. It was the Rev. Jacob Van Vleck, associate pastor at Nazareth and principal of Nazareth Hall, who was one of the moving spirits in establishing Moravian Theological Seminary which had its beginning at Nazareth in 1807.

Long before the era of the Public School, the Moravians maintained a Nursery School at the Whitefield House for a number of years. A Parochial School was maintained by the congregation for many years with high educational standards. About 1885 it had 62 enrolled students and two teachers. The school was discontinued in 1889.

At least sixteen pastors who served at Nazareth became illustrious Bishops of the Church. Upwards of forty men and women have gone into full-time Christian service at home and abroad from this congregation. Countless numbers have through the years been influenced for God and for good, directly or indirectly, by this old congregation.

A period of rapid development in the Sunday school came from about 1884. In a period of thirty years the school enrollment advanced from 125 to above 540. Another spurt of development came in the period from 1927 to 1933. The Church always owes much to the faithful leaders and teachers in the Sunday Church school. We pay tribute to the great number of unlisted faithful and loyal teachers who served through the years.

The superintendents of the Sunday school from local records available since 1884, have been—

Frank Kunkel,—1884
Dr. W. H. Crawford, 1885-1898
O. Eugene Moore, 1899-1901
Dalvin M. Leopold, 1902-1905
Andrew G. Kern, 1906-1915
Dr. G. J. Wimmer, 1916-1917
Charles W. Clewell, 1918-1927
C. Frederick Martin, 1928-1940
Edgar F. Rader, 1941-1947
